“Specialty Shopping Tour”

The Specialty Shopping Tour is designed to take visitors to shops and shopping venues that are traditionally frequented by tourists to Accra as well as those places that off the tourist trail. While there will be an opportunity to contour the tour to the specific desires of the group as a whole, the tour will include the following:

- The tour begins after breakfast at approximately 8:30 with a departure from the lobby of your hotel and a visit to the Arts Center Bazaar in the Center for National Culture for a general gift shopping experience. You see on display the popular “Kente clothe, fabrics, carvings, leather goods and jewelry, as well as a host of other souvenir items.
- The Art Center Visit will be followed by fabric shopping at Woodin and Mercy Ocansey’s shops in Osu, the shopping, restaurant and nightlife center of Accra. Woodin is famous for its beautiful print fabrics and Mercy Ocansey is famous for her tie and dye patterns. While in Osu, there is also the opportunity to purchase gold jewelry and choose from a selection of other designer specialty shops in the area.
- The morning shopping will be followed by lunch as the group will choose from several good restaurants in Osu.
- After lunch, the shopping continues at Mawuli Okujeto’s (MKOGH), one of Accra’s premier designers for clothing items that can be purchased off the rack. If there is interest, this portion of the trip will also include Sun Trade Beads designer beads jewelry), Blazing Gear (specialty t-shirts and jerseys) and Asha Fabrics (clothing and fabric).
- The final stop of the tour is Wild Gecko gift shopping for slightly upscale gift items from Ghana and various parts of Africa. Depending on time there will be an opportunity to relax for a drink or additional shopping at Accra’s newest shopping mall that includes Game, Shop rite and other specialty stores.
